

D04/47393

Gazette notice

Australian Postal Corporation Price Notification

On 24 September 2004 the Australian Competition and Consumer Commission (the ACCC) received a locality notice (price notification) from the Australian Postal Corporation (Australia Post) under section 95Z(5) of the Trade Practices Act 1974 (the Act).

The price notification states that Australia Post proposes to introduce a new service, Impact Mail, which will fall within the definition of Australia Post's reserved services. Australia Post is a 'declared person' and its reserved services are notified services for the purposes of Part VIIA of the Act.

On 29 September 2004, the ACCC, pursuant to section 95(Z)(6)(b), decided not to object to Australia Post supplying the notified service, being the Impact Mail service, on the terms and prices proposed in its price notification of 24 September 2004.

Details of the Impact Mail service covered by the price notification, and the reasons for the ACCC's decision, have been published on its web site at www.accc.gov.au and also on the ACCC's Public Register.