To whom it may concern,

I really do think of the ACCC as a joke, and I am not alone in this way of thinking.

Let's face it, the big two Coles and Woolworth/Safeway control the market because of their dominance and really do stick their finger up at your organisation, knowing darn well that you will hold this inquiry then come out with the finding that no wrong has been uncovered.

Yet, prices have risen dramatically and suppliers have stated over and over that they receive a pittance from the retailers. Today Tonight has continually given details of the ripoffs that we are subjected to daily, with no response from your organisation.

This will be another waste of money, and we will continue to suffer. Everyday I hear other people talking of your lack of enforcement, and this will continue no matter what the big chains do.

Yours,

Lindsay F. Mason
