

Sent: Tuesday, 15 April 2008 7:05 PM

To: Grocery Prices Inquiry

Subject: late submissions

hi i would like to add this ,why, when two or three years ago at christmass when petrol hit $1.45 pl for the first time in australia a cabury chocalote bar at coles was $4.99 for a 400gm bar .Then the supermarkets said they must increase the price to cover the fuel bill no problem it went up to $5.21 thats fair now last mounth i saw the same bar of chocalate for are u sitting down $6.70 well that just gave me a heart attack well anyway i went last thusday shopping and guess what it is now $7.04. big w sell the same chocalate bar for $3.98 please explain why??? thank you john gallo