

Application for a revocation of an authorisation for conduct

Guidance in completing your application to the ACCC

An application for a revocation of an authorisation for conduct or arrangements (other than mergers or acquisitions¹) (the application) should include the information outlined in this form. Where possible, each question should be answered fully and be substantiated with evidence. If a question is not relevant or where information is not available and cannot be reasonably estimated, please provide a brief explanation.

The ACCC must not grant the proposed revocation unless it is satisfied that the statutory test is met.

It is an offence to knowingly provide false or misleading information to the ACCC. Refer to section 137.1 of the Criminal Code (Cth).

Key points for lodging your application

- We encourage you to consult the ACCC's Guidelines for Authorisation of Conduct \(non-merger\).
- Failure to provide sufficient information may render the application invalid or otherwise impact the ACCC's ability to assess your application.
- A valid application must contain:
 - a public version of your application for publication on the public register. You should provide a clearly marked confidential version if you wish to claim confidentiality for parts of your application. All confidentiality claims must be substantiated. The public version must contain sufficient information to enable public consultation on your application
 - a signed declaration by the applicant.

¹ See: Application for authorisation of a proposed merger or acquisition.
