

Form of notices under section 151ZB of the Telecommunications Act 1997

For the purposes of subsection 151ZB(2) of the Telecommunications Act 1997, a notification given pursuant to subsection 151ZB(1) must:

- be in writing;
- identify the person (other than the 'first person') mentioned at subparagraph 151ZB(1)(b)(i) or (ii);
- describe the relevant event mentioned at paragraph 151ZB(1)(c);
- specify the date the relevant change in control event mentioned at subparagraph 151ZB(1)(b)(i) or (ii) took place; and
- be submitted electronically to the ACCC in an accessible format.

For the purposes of subsection 151ZB(4) of the Telecommunications Act 1997, a notification made pursuant to subsection 151ZB(3) must:

- be in writing;
- identify the persons mentioned at paragraphs 151ZB(3)(a) and (b);
- describe the position specified at paragraph 151ZB(3)(c);
- specify the date of change in control of the person who gave the functional separation undertaking; and
- be submitted electronically to the ACCC in an accessible format.

Note: The term "person" in these forms has been used for consistency with the requirements of subsections 151ZB(1) and (3) of the Telecommunications Act 1997 (Telecommunications Act). It is noted, however, that pursuant to subsection 2C(1) of the Acts Interpretation Act 1901, references to a "person" in any Act include a "body corporate" and that only a corporation (as defined in section 142A of the Telecommunications Act to mean "a body corporate") can give a functional separation undertaking.
