

Understand, compare and control your energy service

How to find a good energy offer

Use the website

www.energymadeeasy.gov.au

This website is from the Australian Energy Regulator (AER). The website is

- free
- independent
- helps you look at offers in your area.

How to compare

Look at your electricity or gas bill.

Check

- what rate (tariff) you are on
and
- how much energy you use
(in kWh for electricity, MJ for gas)
or how much you pay.

You can also ask your retailer for this information.

- Check if you can get any discounts.
- Check the fees, like fees if you do not pay your bills on time.

Before you sign with a new retailer

Ask the new retailer what the offer might cost you.

Compare the new offer with the offer you have now.

Ask your current retailer to give you a better offer.

Ask your current retailer Do I have to pay fees for stopping the contract early?

This might be called an exit fee.

What is an energy contract?

You say Yes to an offer from an electricity or gas retailer.

- You can do this on the
  - phone
  - internet
  - with a salesperson, like at your front door or in a shopping centre.
- The retailer must give you some details in writing, like the price and rules.
- There is a cooling off period. This means
  - you can change your mind in 10 business days

and

  - there will be no cost.

Door-to-door selling

There are rules. Salespeople must

- not contact you at some times, like early in the morning, evenings and Sundays
- show you their ID and say why they are visiting you
- leave when you ask them to.

You do not have to sign.

You can think about the offer. Ask the salesperson to come back another day.

Energy bills

- Energy bills should be clear.
- Talk to your retailer if you do not understand your bill.

Trouble paying your bill

Talk to your retailer. Say you are having trouble paying your bill.

The retailer may be able to help you.

For example, payment plans, hardship programs and concessions.

Problems with your energy bill or your retailer

Contact your retailer straight away.

Tell them the problem and what you want them to do.

If they can not fix it straight away, ask to speak with a senior officer or manager.

If you still can not fix the problem, contact the energy ombudsman in your state or territory.

The energy ombudsman helps energy customers fix problems.

Call the Energy Ombudsman in your state or territory.
