Hi Trung,

I know there are some teams in the Cartels division who are a bit quiet and who could make calls and/or do some investigation into what is stated by Frank Black in the newsletter for the purpose of determining whether the statements about sticking together go beyond the words used. [REDACTED]

Is the immunity team an appropriate place to send the matter for triaging? It doesn't look like a matter that would fall within their immediate purview.

Let's discuss in the team meeting tomorrow.

Kind regards

Monali

Blake, Nora and me.

In summary:

- There was an opinion piece on Owner Driver, an Australian truck publication, stating concerns of drivers undercutting each other during COVID-19.

"What does concern me is the cheap freight being offered by people taking advantage of the situation. This is no time for bottom feeders to seek to profit at the expense of others. We can't afford for rates to be lowered anywhere in the industry."

In harder times, it's more important than ever for us to stick together and stand strong. We all feel the calling of our personal financial needs but undercutting each other to win work will only do harm to us all."

- Frank Black, the author, is the owner driver representative on the Australian Trucking Association (ATA) Council. However, we suspect Frank Black drafted the opinion piece in his own personal capacity as a driver owner, not as a member of the ATA; and
