To whom It may concern,

I write in support of the Homeworker Code Committee's application {AA1000418}.

to Barwyn and back has been accredited with Ethical Clothing Australia (ECA) since 2107.

I value this accreditation program because it assists my brand in creating a truly ethical product, guides my brand to find other brands to work with and resources to keep me educated in this sphere, and also celebrates and gives my brand exposure.

It is important that we have independent, third-party accreditation that allows us to demonstrate our compliance with the relevant workplace laws in Australia. I value the contractors I work with and the support that is provided through the accreditation program. Operating in Australia, and engaging other Australian small businesses such as embroiderers, heat pressers etc. means that I can first-hand understand the labour and care that goes into creating garments and share this with my consumers, to raise awareness of the practise of clothing manufacture.

I proudly promote my ECA accreditation in social media posts, on swing tags and on my website and know this accreditation is important to my consumers.

Please do not hesitate in contacting me for more information.

Yours sincerely,

Gemma Baxter
