Dear Sir/Madam

Port of Brisbane Pty Ltd & Carnival Application for authorisation AA1000399—Determination

The Australian Competition and Consumer Commission (the ACCC) has issued a determination in respect of the application for authorisation lodged by Port of Brisbane Pty Ltd and Carnival (together, the applicants) on 11 October 2017.

Port of Brisbane and Carnival sought authorisation for contractual arrangements relating to the development of a new cruise terminal in Brisbane.

A copy of the ACCC's determination is attached. For the reasons set out in its determination, the ACCC has decided to grant conditional authorisation until 31 May 2036.

Application for review

Pursuant to section 101 of the Competition and Consumer Act 2010, a person dissatisfied with this determination may apply to the Australian Competition Tribunal (the Tribunal) for its review of the determination. An application for review must be made within 21 days of the date of this determination; that is, on or before 31 May 2018. If no application to review is lodged by this date, the ACCC's determination will come into force on 1 June 2018.

An application for review of the ACCC's determination should be lodged directly with the Tribunal. The Tribunal is a separate body from the ACCC and is located within the Federal Court of Australia.

For further information about the process involved in reviewing decisions in the Tribunal please refer to the Tribunal's website located at http://www.competitiontribunal.gov.au/.

This letter has been placed on the ACCC's public register. If you wish to discuss any aspect of this matter please do not hesitate to contact Hannah Ransom on (02) 6243 1255 or adjudication@accc.gov.au.

Yours sincerely
