Dear Mr Ferguson,

Racing and Wagering Western Australia Application for authorisation AA1000405—final determination

The Australian Competition and Consumer Commission (the ACCC) has issued a determination in respect of the application for authorisation lodged by Racing and Wagering Western Australia (RWVA) on 9 November 2017.

RWVA sought re-authorisation to continue to give effect to its 2012 agreement with William Hill Australia which governs the provision of fixed odds management services to RWVA.

A copy of the ACCC's determination is attached, including a summary of its reasons. For the reasons set out in its determination, the ACCC has decided to grant authorisation to continue to receive fixed odds management services from William Hill Australia until 28 November 2024 for the reasons set out in the enclosed determination.

Application for review

Pursuant to section 101 of the Competition and Consumer Act 2010, a person dissatisfied with this determination may apply to the Australian Competition Tribunal for its review. An application for review must be made within 21 days of the date of this determination; that is, on or before 18 May 2018. If no application to review is lodged by this date, the ACCC's determination will come into force on 19 May 2018.

An application for review of the ACCC's determination should be lodged directly with the Australian Competition Tribunal. The Australian Competition Tribunal is a separate body from the ACCC and is located within the Federal Court of Australia.

For further information about the process involved in reviewing decisions in the Australian Competition Tribunal please refer to the tribunal's website located at <http://www.competitiontribunal.gov.au/>.

This letter has been placed on the ACCC's public register. If you wish to discuss any aspect of this matter please do not hesitate to contact Robert Janissen on 02 6243 1387.

Yours sincerely
