Dear Mr Payten

The Royal Automobile Club of Queensland Limited application for revocation of authorisations A91358 and A91359 and substitution of new authorisation AA1000408 – final determination

The Australian Competition and Consumer Commission (the ACCC) has issued a final determination in respect of the application for authorisation lodged by the Royal Automobile Club of Queensland on 5 December 2017.

A copy of the ACCC's determination and summary of its reasons is attached.

For the reasons set out in its determination, the ACCC has decided to grant authorisation until 19 May 2028.

Application for review

Pursuant to section 101 of the Competition and Consumer Act 2010, a person dissatisfied with this determination may apply to the Australian Competition Tribunal (the Tribunal) for a review of the determination. An application for review must be made within 21 days of the date of this determination; that is, on or before 18 May 2018. If no application for a review is lodged by this date, the ACCC's determination will come into force on 19 May 2018.

An application for a review of the ACCC's determination should be lodged directly with the Tribunal. The Tribunal is a separate body from the ACCC and is located within the Federal Court of Australia.

For further information about the Tribunal's process to hear applications for review of ACCC determinations please refer to the Tribunal's website at www.competitiontribunal.gov.au.

This letter has been placed on the ACCC's public register. If you wish to discuss any aspect of this matter please do not hesitate to contact John Azzopardi on (03) 9290 1461.

Yours sincerely
