The Australian Competition and Consumer Commission (the ACCC) has issued a final determination in respect of the application for authorisation lodged by the Royal Automobile Club of Queensland on 5 December 2017.

The Royal Automobile Club of Queensland sought authorisation for its reciprocal warranty scheme.

A copy of the ACCC's determination is attached, including a summary of its reasons. For the reasons set out in its determination, the ACCC has decided to grant authorisation for 10 years. The ACCC's assessment is set out in the attached determination.

Application for review

Pursuant to section 101 of the Competition and Consumer Act 2010, a person dissatisfied with this determination may apply to the Australian Competition Tribunal (the Tribunal) for a review of the determination. An application for review must be made within 21 days of the date of this determination; that is, on or before 18 May 2018. If no application for a review is lodged by this date, the ACCC's determination will come into force on 19 May 2018.

An application for a review of the ACCC's determination should be lodged directly with the Tribunal. The Tribunal is a separate body from the ACCC and is located within the Federal Court of Australia.
