Dear Sir/Madam

Tyre Stewardship Australia Limited application for authorisation AA1000409 - final determination

The Australian Competition and Consumer Commission (the ACCC) has issued a determination in respect of the application for authorisation lodged by Tyre Stewardship Australia Limited (TSA) on 5 December 2017.

TSA sought authorisation for itself and on behalf of current and future members of the Tyre Product Stewardship Scheme (the Scheme) to allow for continuation of the Scheme. TSA administers the Scheme in accordance with the Guidelines for the Tyre Product Stewardship Scheme, 3 May 2018 (the Revised Guidelines), and is seeking authorisation for specific provisions within the Revised Guidelines.

A copy of the ACCC's determination is attached, including a summary of its reasons. For the reasons set out in its determination, the ACCC has decided to grant authorisation for six years.

Application for review

Pursuant to section 101 of the Competition and Consumer Act 2010, a person dissatisfied with this determination may apply to the Australian Competition Tribunal for its review. An application for review must be made within 21 days of the date of this determination; that is, on or before 14 June 2018. If no application to review is lodged by this date, the ACCC's determination will come into force on 15 June 2018.

An application for review of the ACCC's determination should be lodged directly with the Australian Competition Tribunal. The Australian Competition Tribunal is a separate body from the ACCC and is located within the Federal Court of Australia.

For further information about the process involved in reviewing decisions in the Australian Competition Tribunal please refer to the tribunal's website located at <http://www.competitiontribunal.gov.au/>.

This letter has been placed on the ACCC's public register. If you wish to discuss any aspect of this matter please do not hesitate to contact Kaitlin Hanrahan on 03 9290 1917.

Yours sincerely
