Dear Sir/Madam

Homeworker Code Committee's application for authorisation [AA1000418] - final determination

The Australian Competition and Consumer Commission (the ACCC) has issued a determination in respect of the application for authorisation lodged by the Homeworker Code Committee on 26 April 2018.

The Homeworker Code Committee sought authorisation to give effect to an amended version of the Homeworker Code of Practice, which it proposes to rename 'Ethical Clothing Australia's Code of Practice, Incorporating Homeworkers'.

A copy of the ACCC's determination is attached, including a summary of its reasons. For the reasons set out in its determination, the ACCC has decided to grant authorisation until 21 September 2028.

Application for review

Pursuant to section 101 of the Competition and Consumer Act 2010, a person dissatisfied with this determination may apply to the Australian Competition Tribunal (the Tribunal) for a review of the determination. An application for review must be made within 21 days of the date of this determination; that is, on or before 20 September 2018. If no application for a review is lodged by this date, the ACCC's determination will come into force on 21 September 2018.

An application for a review of the ACCC's determination should be lodged directly with the Tribunal. The Tribunal is a separate body from the ACCC and is located within the Federal Court of Australia.

For further information about the Tribunal's process to hear applications for review of ACCC determinations please refer to the Tribunal's website located at www.competitiontribunal.gov.au.

This letter has been placed on the ACCC's public register. If you wish to discuss any aspect of this matter, please do not hesitate to contact Robert Janissen on 02 6243 1387.

Yours sincerely
