Dear Ms Haddock

Authorisation AA1000433 submitted by Australasian Performing Right Association Limited (APRA) – request for material to be excluded from the public register

I refer to APRA's application for reauthorisation (revocation and substitution) lodged with the Australian Competition and Consumer Commission (the ACCC) on 24 December 2018, including additional supporting documents provided on 7 January 2019 and 9 January 2019.

I have considered your request that the confidential version of APRA's submission in support of the application for revocation and substitution, including confidential attachments, be excluded from the ACCC's public register.

As you are aware, the ACCC is generally required under section 89 of the Competition and Consumer Act 2010 (the Act) to place documents provided to it in relation to an application for revocation and substitution on the ACCC's public register. The Act provides that a person submitting a document in relation to an application for revocation and substitution may request that the document or parts thereof be excluded from the public register by reason of the nature of certain information contained in the document.

As a person authorised to make a decision for and on behalf of the ACCC in relation to such a request, I advise that the confidential version of APRA's submission in support of the application for revocation and substitution, including confidential attachments, will not be placed on the public register.

This letter has been placed on the ACCC's public register.

I note that you also provided a public version of APRA's submission, including public versions of some of the attachments. These documents will be placed on the public register in the form they were provided to the ACCC.

Should you have any queries in relation to this matter, please do not hesitate to Tessa Cramond on 03 9658 6516.

Yours sincerely
