Dear Mr Cameron

The Recruitment, Consulting and Staffing Association (RCSA) application for revocation of authorisation A91388 and substitution of new authorisation AA1000435 – determination

The Australian Competition and Consumer Commission (the ACCC) has issued a determination in respect of the application for re-authorisation lodged by RCSA on 6 February 2019.

A copy of the ACCC's determination and summary of its reasons is attached.

For the reasons set out in its determination, the ACCC has decided to grant authorisation in respect of RCSA's Professional Conduct Grievance Intervention Guidelines, new Code 5 and certain provisions of RCSA's Constitution and By-Laws until 8 August 2024 and until 8 August 2020 in respect of the Old Code and Disciplinary and Dispute Resolution Procedures.

Application for review

Pursuant to section 101 of the Competition and Consumer Act 2010, a person dissatisfied with this determination may apply to the Australian Competition Tribunal (the Tribunal) for a review of the determination. An application for review must be made within 21 days of the date of this determination; that is, on or before 7 August 2019. If no application for a review is lodged by this date, the ACCC's determination will come into force on 8 August 2019.

An application for a review of the ACCC's determination should be lodged directly with the Tribunal. The Tribunal is a separate body from the ACCC and is located within the Federal Court of Australia.

For further information about the Tribunal's process to hear applications for review of ACCC determinations please refer to the Tribunal's website at www.competitiontribunal.gov.au.

This letter has been placed on the ACCC's public register. If you wish to discuss any aspect of this matter, please do not hesitate to contact Alex Reed on 02 6243 1364.

Yours sincerely
