Dear Mr McGrath,

Seedvise Pty Ltd – Application for re-authorisation - AA1000438 – Final determination

The Australian Competition and Consumer Commission (the ACCC) has issued a final determination in respect of the application for authorisation lodged by Seedvise Pty Ltd on 25 March 2019.

The ACCC's determination grants authorisation to enable Seedvise to collectively negotiate, on behalf of participating royalty managers, with grain buyers over the terms and conditions on which End Point Royalties are collected from grain buyers and remitted to participating royalty managers. The determination grants authorisation for 10 years.

A copy of the ACCC's determination and summary of its reasons is available on the ACCC's public register.

Application for review

Pursuant to section 101 of the Competition and Consumer Act 2010, a person dissatisfied with this determination may apply to the Australian Competition Tribunal for its review. An application for review must be made within 21 days of the date of this determination; that is, on or before 10 August 2019. If no application to review is lodged by this date, the ACCC's determination will come into force on 11 August 2019. Interim authorisation remains in effect until the ACCC's determination comes into force.

An application for review of the ACCC's determination should be lodged directly with the Australian Competition Tribunal, which is a separate body to the ACCC and is located within the Federal Court of Australia.

For further information about the process involved in reviewing decisions in the Australian Competition Tribunal please refer to the tribunal's website.

This letter has been placed on the ACCC's public register. If you wish to discuss any aspect of this matter please do not hesitate to contact Theo Kelly on 02 6243 1179.

Yours sincerely
