Daniel McCracken-Hewson
Acting General Manager, Adjudication
Australian Competition and Consumer Commission

Dear Mr McCracken-Hewson

Application for Collective Bargaining Authorisation against Cairns Airport Pty Ltd (CAPL) AA1000460: Disclosure of Confidential Information to CAPL

We refer to our telephone conversations with Danielle Staltari on 17 and 18 December 2019 and your letter to CAPL on 17 December 2019 regarding the disclosure to CAPL of confidential information referred to in the application for Authorisation and Confidential Annexure A both dated 28 November 2019.

We have received instructions from the Applicants to provide limited confidential information to CAPL, including examples of the Applicants' interactions with CAPL as referenced in the application for Authorisation.

The confidential information below is cross referenced with the non-confidential version of the application for Authorisation as published on the ACCC's public Authorisations Register (Register) and should be read in parallel for context.

We request that the ACCC not publish the following confidential information on the Register as disclosure of the confidential information is limited to CAPL. However, the Applicants provide the ACCC with consent to publish a copy of this letter on the Register.

Upon receipt of the confidential information, CAPL must not disclose the confidential information contained in this letter to any third party (except as compelled under the law or to its legal advisors for the purpose of obtaining legal advice) without the Applicants' prior written consent.

If you have any questions or concerns, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Yours Sincerely
