I write regarding the collective bargaining notification lodged on 15 April 2024, concerning the proposed development of a dry car hire initiative to increase tourism opportunities in the South West Queensland region.

The ACCC has considered this notification and does not object to the notification. No further action will be taken at this time. Protection from legal action provided by the notification commenced on 29 April 2024 and will continue until 15 April 2027, unless withdrawn or revoked by the ACCC.

The ACCC may review a notification at any time if circumstances change, or the ACCC receives further information. A notification can be revoked if the ACCC is satisfied that the public benefits no longer outweigh the public detriments. This letter has been placed on the ACCC's public register.
