Dear Interested Party

I refer to our previous email to PHA on 23 April 2020. Since then, three more applications have been made by State governments for authorisation to engage in certain conduct for the purpose of maximising hospital capacity during the COVID-19 pandemic.

In each case, urgent interim authorisation has been granted. The public register provides links to the applications and the interim authorisation decisions.

State	Links
Western Australia	Public Register
Tasmania	Public Register
New South Wales	Public Register

We seek your views on the substantive applications as a party that may be interested in the arrangements. In particular we are inviting submissions on what the likely public benefits and detriments of the conduct are. Information about how to make a submission is available in the ACCC's Guidelines For Authorisation of Conduct. It is expected that the ACCC will issue a draft determination in response to the applications in June/July of this year.

How to make a submission

Please email your submission to adjudication@acc.gov.au with the subject 'AA1000505; AA1000506; AA1000507 – Private Healthcare COVID-19 arrangements – submission'. Alternatively, if you would like to provide comments orally, please contact Emma Stiles or Sophie Matthiesson on the numbers provided below. We ask that submissions be provided by Friday 22 May 2020.

We recognise that the COVID-19 situation may be causing disruptions to your normal operations. For this reason, we are taking a flexible approach to receiving feedback on the conduct.

Your submissions will be placed on the ACCC's authorisations public register on the internet unless you have made a request (with reasons) for us to exclude part or all of the submission from the public register. (see Guidelines for excluding confidential information from the public register for more information on how to make a request and how we assess requests).

This email has been placed on the ACCC's public register. If you wish to discuss any aspect of this matter, please do not hesitate to contact Emma Stiles on (02) 9102 4036 or Sophie Matthiesson on (03) 9910 9456 or by e-mail at adjudication@acc.gov.au.

Yours sincerely

Emma Stiles
