Dear Interested Party

Collective Bargaining Notification CB10000474 lodged by Redcliffe Aerodrome Chamber of Commerce Inc. —interested party consultation

Introduction

On 13 July 2020 the Australian Competition and Consumer Commission (the ACCC) received a collective bargaining notification from Redcliffe Aerodrome Chamber of Commerce Inc (RACCI) seeking to collectively bargain on behalf of the tenants of the Redcliffe Aerodrome with the Moreton Bay Regional Council (the owner of the Redcliffe Aerodrome) in relation to Redcliffe Aerodrome Hangar lease agreements. A copy of the notification is available on the ACCC's notifications register.

The purpose of this letter is to invite your comments as a party who may be interested in providing a submission to the ACCC in relation to these arrangements.

Collective bargaining notification process

Collective bargaining occurs where two or more competitors come together to negotiate terms and conditions (including price) with a supplier or customer.

Without the legal protection provided by a collective bargaining notification, these arrangements can breach the Competition and Consumer Act 2010 (the Act).

The legal protection provided by a collective bargaining notification commences 14 days after the notification is lodged, unless the ACCC objects within this period.

Request for submissions

When the ACCC receives a collective bargaining notification it will assess the likely public benefits and detriments, including any lessening of competition, to determine whether it should object to the notification.

You are invited to comment on the likely public benefits and likely effect on competition, or any other public detriment, from the proposed collective bargaining arrangement.

Submissions should be provided by close of business 30 July 2020. Please email submissions to adjudication@acc.gov.au with the subject title "CB1000047- Redcliffe Aerodrome Chamber of Commerce Inc – submission."

Submissions received by the ACCC will be placed on a public register, subject to any requests for exclusion. Please see the ACCC's publication Guidelines for excluding information from the public register.

This letter has been placed on the ACCC's public register. If you wish to discuss any aspect of this matter, please do not hesitate to contact Mandy Bendelstein on (02) 9102 4037.

Yours sincerely
