Dear Sir/Madam

Morgan Sawmill Jamestown application for authorisation AA1000539—final determination

The Australian Competition and Consumer Commission (the ACCC) has issued a determination in respect of the application for authorisation lodged by Morgan Sawmill Jamestown on 18 December 2020.

Morgan Sawmill Jamestown sought authorisation for businesses that acquire unprocessed timber logs from the South Australian Forestry Corporation (ForestrySA) to collectively negotiate terms and conditions concerning the supply of logs from the Mount Lofty Ranges in South Australia.

A copy of the ACCC's determination is attached, including a summary of its reasons. For the reasons set out in its determination, the ACCC has decided to grant authorisation for [until 30 June 2032]. The ACCC's assessment is set out in Section four of its determination.

Application for review

Pursuant to section 101 of the Competition and Consumer Act 2010 (Cth), a person dissatisfied with this determination may apply to the Australian Competition Tribunal for its review. An application for review must be made within 21 days of the date of this determination; that is, on or before Thursday 24 June 2021. If no application to review is lodged by this date, the ACCC's determination will come into force on Friday 25 June 2021.

An application for review of the ACCC's determination should be lodged directly with the Australian Competition Tribunal. The Australian Competition Tribunal is a separate body from the ACCC and is located within the Federal Court of Australia.

For further information about the process involved in reviewing decisions in the Australian Competition Tribunal please refer to the tribunal's website located at <http://www.competitiontribunal.gov.au/>.

This letter has been placed on the ACCC's public register. If you wish to discuss any aspect of this matter please do not hesitate to contact Robert Janissen on 02 6243 1387.

Yours sincerely
