Dear Sir/Madam

Australian Institute of Petroleum application for authorisation AA1000488 — final determination

The Australian Competition and Consumer Commission (the ACCC) has granted authorisation until 31 March 2021, allowing the Australian Institute of Petroleum (AIP), its members, and any future parties approved by the ACCC to cooperate on ensuring the security of supply of fuel products to Australian businesses and consumers during the COVID-19 pandemic.

A copy of the ACCC's determination is attached and is also available on the ACCC's public register.

Application for review

Pursuant to section 101 of the Competition and Consumer Act 2010, a person dissatisfied with this determination may apply to the Australian Competition Tribunal (the Tribunal) for its review. An application for review must be made within 21 days of the date of this determination; that is, on or before 1 October 2020. If no application to review is lodged by this date, the ACCC's determination will come into force on 2 October 2020.

An application for review of the ACCC's determination should be lodged directly with the Australian Competition Tribunal. The Australian Competition Tribunal is a separate body from the ACCC and is located within the Federal Court of Australia.

For further information about the process involved in reviewing decisions in the Australian Competition Tribunal please refer to the tribunal's website located at <http://www.competitiontribunal.gov.au/>.

This letter has been placed on the ACCC's public register.

If you wish to discuss any aspect of this matter please do not hesitate to contact Sam Strudwick-Day on (02) 9230 9159.

Yours sincerely
