Dear Interested Party

CALMS Ltd – application for re-authorisation AA1000602 – final determination

The Australian Competition and Consumer Commission (the ACCC) has issued a determination in respect of the application for re-authorisation lodged by CALMS Ltd (CALMS) on 19 January 2022.

CALMS sought re-authorisation to continue the use of its 'not to exceed' fee schedule in the provision of after-hours primary medical care in the ACT (the Conduct).

For the reasons set out in its final determination, the ACCC has decided to grant re-authorisation for a further 10 years, until 5 May 2032.

A copy of the ACCC's determination is attached and also available on the ACCC's authorisations public register.

Application for review

Pursuant to section 101 of the Competition and Consumer Act 2010 (Cth), a person dissatisfied with this determination may apply to the Australian Competition Tribunal for its review. An application for review must be made within 21 days of the date of this determination; that is, on or before 4 May 2022. If no application to review is lodged by this date, the ACCC's determination will come into force on 5 May 2022.

An application for review of the ACCC's determination should be lodged directly with the Australian Competition Tribunal. The Australian Competition Tribunal is a separate body from the ACCC and is located within the Federal Court of Australia.

For further information about the process involved in reviewing decisions in the Australian Competition Tribunal please refer to the tribunal's website.

This letter has been placed on the ACCC's public register. If you wish to discuss any aspect of this matter, please contact Gemma Smith at gemma.smith@acc.gov.au.

Yours sincerely
