Dear Madam/Sir

National Pharmaceutical Services Association's application for revocation of authorisation AA1000480 and substitution of AA1000571 — determination

The Australian Competition and Consumer Commission (the ACCC) has issued a determination in respect of the application for re-authorisation lodged by the National Pharmaceutical Services Association on 6 September 2021.

For the reasons set out in its determination, the ACCC has granted authorisation with a reporting condition until 28 February 2023.

A copy of the ACCC's determination is attached and also available on the ACCC's authorisations public register.

Application for review

Pursuant to section 101 of the Competition and Consumer Act 2010 (Cth), a person dissatisfied with this determination may apply to the Australian Competition Tribunal for its review. An application for review must be made within 21 days of the date of this determination; that is, on or before 10 March 2022.

If no application to review is lodged by this date, the ACCC's determination will come into force on 11 March 2022.

An application for review of the ACCC's determination should be lodged directly with the Australian Competition Tribunal. The Australian Competition Tribunal is a separate body from the ACCC and is located within the Federal Court of Australia. For further information about the process involved in reviewing decisions in the Australian Competition Tribunal please refer to the tribunal's website located at <http://www.competitiontribunal.gov.au/>

This letter has been placed on the ACCC's public register. If you wish to discuss any aspect of this matter, please contact Tom Lyle on (03) 9290 1879.

Yours sincerely
