Dear Madam/Sir,

National Lotteries and Newsagents Association Ltd (NLNA) application for authorisation AA1000515 — determination

The Australian Competition and Consumer Commission (the ACCC) has issued a determination in respect of the application for authorisation lodged by the NLNA on 20 May 2020.

For the reasons set out in its determination, the ACCC has decided to grant authorisation to enable the NLNA to collectively bargain on behalf of its members with Tabcorp Holdings Ltd.

A copy of the ACCC's determination is attached and available on the ACCC's authorisations public register.

Application for review

Pursuant to section 101 of the Competition and Consumer Act 2010, a person dissatisfied with this determination may apply to the Australian Competition Tribunal for its review. An application for review must be made within 21 days of the date of this determination; that is, on or before 8 October 2020. If no application to review is lodged by this date, the ACCC's determination will come into force on 9 October 2020.

An application for review of the ACCC's determination should be lodged directly with the Australian Competition Tribunal. The Australian Competition Tribunal is a separate body from the ACCC and is located within the Federal Court of Australia.
