Dear Sir/Madam

Screen Producers Australia application for authorisation AA1000535—final determination

The Australian Competition and Consumer Commission (the ACCC) has issued a determination in respect of the application for authorisation lodged by Screen Producers Australia on 18 November 2020.

Screen Producers Australia sought authorisation to enable them to collectively negotiate new model terms of engagement with the Australian Directors' Guild, the Australian Writers' Guild and the Media Entertainment and Arts Alliance, and to give effect to new and existing model terms of engagement when negotiating contracts to engage current and future members of these organisations.

A copy of the ACCC's determination is attached, including a summary of its reasons. For the reasons set out in its determination, the ACCC has decided to grant authorisation until 15 May 2031. The ACCC's assessment is set out in Chapter 4 of its determination.

Application for review

Pursuant to section 101 of the Competition and Consumer Act 2010 (Cth), a person dissatisfied with this determination may apply to the Australian Competition Tribunal for its review. An application for review must be made within 21 days of the date of this determination; that is, on or before 14 May 2021. If no application to review is lodged by this date, the ACCC's determination will come into force on 15 May 2021.

An application for review of the ACCC's determination should be lodged directly with the Australian Competition Tribunal. The Australian Competition Tribunal is a separate body from the ACCC and is located within the Federal Court of Australia.

For further information about the process involved in reviewing decisions in the Australian Competition Tribunal please refer to the tribunal's website located at <http://www.competitiontribunal.gov.au/>.

This letter has been placed on the ACCC's public register. If you wish to discuss any aspect of this matter please do not hesitate to contact Tom Whitby on 02 6243 1012.

Yours sincerely
