Dear Ms Gilbert

THE ROYAL AUTOMOBILE CLUB OF WESTERN AUSTRALIA (INC)
NOTIFICATIONS OF EXCLUSIVE DEALING – THIRD LINE FORCING RAC REWARDS AND RECOGNITION PROGRAM

New Notifications and Request for Confidentiality

We refer to our letter, dated 18 October 2000, enclosing a table showing the modifications to the RAC rewards and recognition member loyalty program known as attractions ('the Program') effective 1 October 2000.

We enclose additional notifications which arise out of the Program, together with a cheque for $700.00 in payment of the lodgement fees. The notifications pertain to goods and services supplied in Western Australia by the following:

- Cellarmaster Wines Pty Ltd trading as Cellarmaster Wines
- Seraph Communications Pty Ltd trading as Cellular One
- DMS Energy Pty Ltd trading as DMS Energy
- Genex Corporation Pty Ltd trading as Rabbit Photo
- Roadshow Film Distributors Pty Ltd trading as Roadshow Film Distributors
- Abbco Pty Ltd trading as The Engine Exchange
- O'Brien Glass Holdings Pty Ltd trading as O'Brien Mirror Service.

The Notifications are supported by a set of Submissions and an annexed Schedule of Offers proposed to be made to RAC members pursuant to the Program.

61717748/685653 Kirsty

The details of the offers to be made by the Retail Partners to RAC members pursuant to the Program is commercially sensitive information. The RAC, in conjunction with the RAC Group and the Retail Partners, will promote the offers in accordance with the marketing objectives of the RAC. If the details of the offers are made publicly available prior to their release by the RAC, competitors to the RAC, and competitors to the Retail Partners proposing to make offers to RAC members, will receive an unfair advantage and the RAC and the Retail Partners will not achieve their marketing objectives.

To this end, the RAC requests that the annexed Schedule of Offers, detailing the offers proposed to be made pursuant to the Program, be kept confidential and not placed as part of the materials that are available for inspection on the public register of notifications lodged with the ACCC.

Letter from the Adjudication Branch

We refer to the letter of the Acting General Manager of the Adjudication Branch at the ACCC, dated 11 October 2000, confirming that the Notifications lodged on 19 September and 27 September 2000 (N70182 and N70183) will stand.

In due course, we request that the Adjudication Branch send us a similar letter confirming receipt of the enclosed Notifications, together with the status of the Notifications.

We look forward to hearing from you shortly. Should you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact Claire Whisker on direct line (08) 9288 6927.

Yours sincerely

SUBMISSIONS IN SUPPORT OF NOTIFICATIONS OF EXCLUSIVE DEALINGS RELATING TO RAC REWARDS AND RECOGNITION PROGRAM

1. This submission is in support of separate exclusive dealing notifications by a number of companies in connection with a member loyalty scheme commenced by the Royal Automobile Club of Western Australia (Inc) ('the RAC') in October 1999.

The RAC Club

2. The RAC Group comprises the RAC, an incorporated association under the WA Associations Incorporations Act, and its subsidiaries RAC Insurance Pty Ltd, RAC Travel Services Pty Ltd, RAC Finance Limited, RAC Insurance Investments Pty Ltd and RAC Glass and Security Services Pty Ltd.
 3. The governing body of the RAC is the Council, which comprises 15 councillors elected by the members of the Club. Each subsidiary has a separate Board of Directors comprising senior management and representatives from the Council.
 4. Membership of the RAC is open and on joining a member of the public is required to pay one-off joining fee, which is currently $33.00, and there is also an annual subscription fee, which is currently $53.90 for standard cover and $93.50 for plus cover.
 5. At 31 August 2000, the RAC had approximately 402,532 members and provides 24-roadside assistance to approximately 511,000 vehicles nominated by members. It is anticipated that by June 2001, the number of members will be 412,785.
 6. The RAC is a non-profit organisation, which under the provisions of the Associations Incorporations Act in its Rules cannot trade. It provides motoring goods and services to members in return for an annual subscription fee. Its subsidiaries have been formed to carry on trading enterprises that provide further services and provide funds to further the provision of benefits. The RAC and its subsidiaries ('RAC Group') are a mutual incorporated group the ultimate members of which cannot, under the provisions of the Associations Incorporations Act and its Rules, share in profits. It operates for the mutual benefit of those ultimate members. Its activities and trading are carried on through the subsidiaries, without maximising profit, for the mutual benefit of RAC members and provide a wider community service.

Member Loyalty ProgramPERTH

7. In October 1999, the RAC commenced marketing a member loyalty program known as 'RAC Rewards and Recognition Program' and marketed at 'attractions'.
8. Each member of the RAC has been issued with a new membership card, which entitles them to a range of discounted goods and services supplied by:
 - 8.1 external third parties; and
 - 8.2 the RAC Group.
9. To this end the RAC applied for tenders to interested third parties to participate in the RAC Rewards Program, and who agree to provide a range of discounted goods or services, or special goods or services to RAC members.

Categories of Membership

10. Five different types of cards were issued corresponding to the length of time a person has been a member of the RAC. The categories are Blue Card (0-4 years), Bronze Card (5-9 years); Silver Card (10-24 years); Gold Card (25-49 years) and Life Card (50 years plus).
11. It is anticipated that future offers may distinguish between the different categories of members.

The Terms of the Agreement between the RAC and the Retail Partners

12. Individual agreements have been entered into between the RAC and each of the third parties who successfully tendered for participation in the RAC Rewards Program. These third parties are referred to as Retail Partners.
13. It is a term of the agreements that the Retail Partner will provide certain offers to RAC members.
14. To avoid any negative implications under the Trade Practices Act, it is not a term of the agreements that the Retail Partners must only extend the offer to RAC members.
15. The Retail Partners will be at liberty to provide the special offers to other members of the public.

Promotion of the RAC Rewards ProgramPERTH

16. The primary vehicle for promotion of the RAC Rewards Program is via a colour insert in each issue of the bi-monthly publication sent to RAC members called "Road Patrol".
17. In addition the RAC distributes to each of its members a directory of services, which details the Retail Partners, and the special offers that they will extend to RAC members.
18. RAC members, if they choose to elect to purchase goods or services from the Retail Partners provide at the point of sale their membership card as proof of membership of the RAC in order to avail themselves of the offer.
19. The RAC Rewards Program is promoted throughout merchandising at retail outlets of the Retail Partners and within the RAC Group.

Offers made by the Retail Partners pursuant to the RAC Rewards Program

20. We refer to the notifications lodged on 28 March 2000, 9 May 2000, 17 July 2000, 19 September 2000 and 27 September 2000 and the annexures to the notifications. In addition to the current Retail Partners, attached is a schedule of the new Retail Partners and the special offers they have agreed to provide to RAC members. The new Retail Partners will be advertised and commence the provision of offers from 1 December 2000.

Offers made by RAC Group pursuant to the RAC Rewards Program

21. In addition to offers made by the Retail Partners, the following entities within the RAC Group will continue to offer discounted goods and services to members of the Club:
 - 21.1 RAC Glass and Security Services Pty Ltd;
 - 21.2 RAC Travel Services Pty Ltd; and
 - 21.3 RAC Finance Limited

Spot Promotions

22. It is also anticipated that spot promotions will be run by the RAC Group in which third parties will agree to extend offers to RAC members from time to time, and that these offers will be promoted in the "Road Patrol" and within the RAC Group.

Possible application of Trade Practices ActPERTH

23. On one interpretation of the RAC Rewards Program the offers to be made by the Retail Partners and the RAC Group are conditioned by the requirement that the proposed acquirer of the goods or services must have first acquired membership from the RAC. Hence section 47(6) and (7) of the Trade Practices Act may arguably apply.

Public Benefit

24. We refer to notifications N70086 to N70135. The Senior Assistant Commissioner of the Adjudication Branch of the ACCC held, by letter dated 22 October 1999, that it is unlikely that the detriment to the public from the conduct will outweigh the likely benefit. Accordingly, notifications N70086 to N70135 were allowed to stand.
25. For the same reasons as lodged on 1 October 1999, we submit that it is unlikely that the detriment to the public from the conduct will outweigh the likely benefit and request that the enclosed notifications be allowed to stand. Please let us know if you require further submissions.

Market Position

26. Neither the RAC nor any of the Retail Partners have sufficient market power in the markets they operate to force a member of the public to become a member of the RAC. The RAC Rewards Program simply confers additional benefits to membership of the Club. An analysis of the Retail Partners and the discounts offered reveals that there is no actual or practical compulsion on members of the public to join the RAC beyond that which can be characterised as a normal exercise of a person's consumer sovereignty to acquire the most value for his or her consumer dollar.
27. In any event the offers to be extended by the Retail Partners are not exclusive to members of the RAC. There will be no contractual requirement on the Retail Partners that they must refrain from extending the same or similar offers to members of the public generally. A member of the public will be able to negotiate the best deal for him or herself to acquire goods or services from the Retail Partners without the necessity of becoming an RAC member.
