Dear Ms Kelly,

Notification of Exclusive Dealing – Signature Security Group Pty Ltd
N90898

I refer to the above third line forcing notification lodged by Signature Security on 11 September 2001 with the Australian Competition and Consumer Commission (“the Commission”). The notification has been placed on the Commission’s public register. Legal immunity afforded by the notification came into force on 25 September 2001.

Signature Security will offer, at a discounted price, to supply, install and monitor a base home electronic alarm system to GIO policyholders.

On the basis of the information that you have provided, I have decided not to make inquiries at this time concerning the notified conduct.

Acting under delegation from the Commission, I have granted confidentiality for the number of policyholders as defined in paragraph 2.4 of your submission and the dollar amounts quoted in paragraph 2.5 of that submission.

Please note that the Commission may act to remove the immunity afforded by this notification at a later stage if it is satisfied that the likely benefit to the public from the conduct will not outweigh the likely detriment to the public from the conduct.

If you wish to discuss any aspect of this matter, please do not hesitate to contact Jewel Gilbert on (02) 6243 1225.

Yours sincerely
