Dear «Salutation»

Review of Taxi Authorisations - Notices Proposing to Revoke Authorisations A90441, A90448, A90531, A90449, A90447, A90463, A90455, A40047, A90498, A40071, A90472

I refer to the above authorisations which were granted by the then Trade Practices Commission (the TPC) during the period of 1986 to 1994 to a number of companies in the taxi industry. The TPC is now known as the Australian Competition and Consumer Commission (the Commission).

The authorisation process

By way of background, the Commission is the Commonwealth agency responsible for administering the Trade Practices Act 1974 (the Act). The objective of the Act is to enhance the welfare of Australians by promoting competition and fair trading and providing for consumer protection.

Under the authorisation provisions of the Act the Commission may grant immunity from legal proceedings for some arrangements or conduct that might otherwise breach the anticompetitive practices provisions of the Act where it is satisfied that the public benefit flowing from such arrangements or conduct outweighs any public detriment.

One way in which parties may obtain immunity is to formally apply to the Commission for what is known as an 'authorisation'.

Revocation of an authorisation

Under section 91B of the Act, the Commission may revoke an authorisation at any time after granting an authorisation if it considers that there has been a material change of circumstances.

To initiate the revocation of authorisation the Commission is required to inform interested parties by Notice in writing that it is considering the revocation of the authorisation, indicate the basis on which the revocation is being proposed, and invite submissions in respect of the revocation.

Under section 91B of the Act, a person to whom an authorisation was granted may also apply for revocation of that authorisation. On receipt of such an application the Commission is required to inform interested parties by Notice in writing to indicate that the revocation of the authorisation has been applied for, indicate the basis on which the revocation has been applied for, and invite submissions in respect of the revocation.

After considering any submissions received from interested parties in relation to the proposed revocation, the Commission may make a determination in writing revoking the authorisation or deciding not to revoke the authorisation.

Conduct authorised

As mentioned, during the period of 1986 to 1994 the TPC granted authorisations to a number of companies in the taxi industry. A detailed list of these authorisations is at Attachment A. Broadly, the conduct authorised in each authorisation is identical and can be described as the provision of radio booking services on the condition that taxi drivers accept approved taxi hire account systems and display the decals of those account systems, otherwise risk suspension from the radio booking service.

Notice proposing to revoke Deluxe Red and Yellow Cabs authorisation

For your information the Commission has already issued a Notice proposing to revoke authorisation A30112 to Deluxe Red and Yellow Cabs Co-operative Trading Society Ltd, now known as the Combined Communications Network Ltd, on the basis that a material change of circumstances had occurred. This Notice was issued on 17 December 2003 and copy of the Notice, along with submissions received from interested parties on this matter, are available on the Commission's website at www.accc.gov.au

Proposed revocation of authorisations

The Commission considers that a material change of circumstances has occurred since authorisations A90441, A90448, A90531, A90449, A90447, A90463, A90455, A40047, A90498 and A40071 were granted. Accordingly, the Commission proposes to revoke each of these authorisations and Notices to this effect are enclosed for your perusal. Reasons why the Commission considers that a material change of circumstances has occurred are detailed in the Notices.

Please note that the issue of a Notice proposing to revoke an authorisation is only the first step in the review process, as required by the Act to initiate consultation with interested parties. The Commission has not formed a view as to whether it will decide to revoke, or decide not to revoke, any or all of the authorisations.

Proposed revocation of authorisation A90472

In a letter received by the Commission on 21 April 2004, Suburban Transport Services Pty Ltd, formerly known as Suburban Taxi Service Pty Ltd (Suburban), advised that due to considerable changes in the taxi industry since 1988, authorisation has become unnecessary and is no longer required. Accordingly, a Notice indicating that revocation of authorisation A90472 has been applied for is enclosed.

Your views are sought

The Commission invites you to make a written submission regarding the proposed revocation of these authorisations. The Commission is proposing to consider the proposed revocation of all these authorisations concurrently.

If you wish to make a submission, please address it to:

The General Manager Adjudication Branch Australian Competition & Consumer Commission PO Box 1199 DICKSON ACT 2602

Alternatively, submissions may be lodged by fax on (02) 6243 1211 or via e-mail at adjudication@accc.gov.au.

The Commission requests that you lodge any submission you wish to make by close of business Friday 11 June 2004.

As the authorisation process is a public and transparent one, submissions will be placed on the Commission's Public Register. You may request that information you provide in a submission to the Commission be treated as confidential and not placed on the Public Register. Information excluded from the Public Register for reasons of confidentiality will still be considered by the Commission when reaching its decision. Guidelines for seeking confidentiality are enclosed for your information.

A copy of this letter, and the enclosed Notices, will be placed on the Commission's Public Register.

If you have any questions about this matter, please contact me on (02) 6243 1049 or Jason Byrne on (02) 6243 1279.

Yours «End»
