Dear Ms Davies

Re: Third line forcing notifications Nos. N91381 and N91382 lodged by Liquorland (Qld) Pty Limited and Liquorland (Australia) Pty Limited

I refer to the above third line forcing notifications lodged with the Australian Competition and Consumer Commission (the Commission) on 30 April 2004. The notifications have been placed on the Commission's public register.

Legal immunity provided by the notifications will commence on 14 May 2004.

The notifications detail a proposed arrangement whereby the notifying parties and Rinnai Australia Pty Ltd (Rinnai) seek to enter into an arrangement with each other under which they proposed to offer to give a consumer a free $50 or $100 gift voucher for use within the Liquorland chain of retail liquor stores, if the consumer purchases specified Rinnai products from various retailers.

On the basis of the information that you have provided, it is not intended that further action be taken in respect of the notifications at this stage.

As with any notification, please note that the Commission may act to remove the immunity afforded by these notifications at a later stage if it is satisfied that the likely benefit to the public from the conduct will not outweigh the likely detriment to the public from the conduct.

This letter has been placed on the Commission's public register. If you wish to discuss any aspect of this matter, please do not hesitate to contact Tania Mayrhofer on (02) 6243 1070.

Yours sincerely
