Dear Mr Gregson

We are delighted to receive your letter dated 28th April 2005 providing us with clarification as to the additional information you now require before you fully consider our request for an interim authorisation.

Until your letter of 28th April 2005 we were finding it difficult to obtain sufficient information from you to appropriately respond to the issues you believe arose as a result of our application. We also believe it will be of assistance to other small business applicants when they lodge their applications so they are aware of the type and nature of detail required by the ACCC should they not fall strictly within the limitations provided by the notification process.

We do require further clarification of the comments you have made that we don't require an authorisation for our proposal. We are unclear from the comments made to our dairy farmers whether you were referring only to the interim authorisation or the final authorisation. Can you please provide us with the legal basis of your comments on the need for an authorisation (interim or final) so that we may consider your suggestions further.

Yours faithfully,

Jenni Mattila
