Dear Sir/Madam

EXCLUSIVE DEALING NOTIFICATION

We act for Devine Limited.

BRISBANE QLD 4000

We refer to our letter to the Commission dated 9 February 2005, enclosing Form G – Exclusive Dealing Notification and the Commission's subsequent letter to us dated 16 February 2005, providing our client's legal immunity.

Our client now proposes to offer 80 people the opportunity to purchase any Devine Limited house and land package in Melbourne with an interest rate to be fixed for a period of 4 years provided that the purchase obtains its finance from First Permanent Group. Our client had previously only proposed to offer that promotion to 40 people.

We enclose Form G – Exclusive Dealing Notification on behalf of our client and a cheque in the sum of $200.

As we set out in our previous letter to you, our client envisages that potential purchasers of Devine Limited house and land packages in Melbourne will inspect the properties and, if interest in buying, will seek credit approval from First Permanent Group for a loan with an interest rate fixed for a period of 4 years. If potential purchasers are not credit approved by First Permanent Group or choose not to finance through First Permanent Group, the purchasers will still be able to purchase house and land in Melbourne but the interest rate for the loan will not be fixed for the first 4 years of the loan.

The public benefit that arises from this conduct is that it allows purchasers of house and land packages from Devine Limited to have certainty with respect to the financing arrangements to apply to the purchase for the first 4 years of their loan. While Devine Limited is only offering to fix the interest rate for a period of 4 years if the purchaser uses First Permanent Group, purchasers are still free to use other financiers to finance the purchase of the house and land packages.

Our client submits that the market for the sale and purchase of residential house and land in Melbourne, including house and land packages, is very competitive, with a number of businesses competing with our client in the market for sales of properties and, likewise, the market for finance for the purchase of house and land packages is equally competitive with many financiers offering loans for the purchase of such properties. In the circumstances, our client submits that the proposed conduct will not have the effect of substantially lessening competition in the relevant markets and the public benefit will outweigh any potential negative impact of the proposed arrangements.

DIRECTIONS

- 1. If there is insufficient space on this form for the required information, the information is to be shown on separate sheets, numbered consecutively and signed by or on behalf of the person giving the notice
- 2. If the notice is given by or on behalf of a corporation, the name of the corporation is to be inserted in item 1(a), not the name of the person singing the notice, and the notice is to be signed by a person authorised by the corporation to do so.
- 3. In item 1(b), describe that part of the business of the person giving the notice in the course of which the conduct is engaged in.
- 4. If particulars of a condition or of a reason of the type referred to in sub-section 47(2), (3), (4), (5), (6), (7), (8) or (9) of the Trade Practices Act 1974 have been reduced in whole or in part to writing, a copy of the writing is to be provided with the notice.
- 5. In item 3 (a), describe the nature of the business carried on by the persons referred to in that item.
- 6. In item 3(b) (ii), state an estimate of the highest number of persons with whom the person giving the notice is likely to deal in the course of engaging in the conduct at any time during the next year.

NOTICE

If this notification is in respect of conduct of a kind referred to in sub-section 47(6) or (7) or paragraph 47(8)(c) or (9) (d) of the Trade Practices Act 1974 ("the Act"), it comes into force at the end of the period prescribed for the purposes of subsection 93(7a) of the Act ("the prescribed period") unless the Commission gives a notice under sub-section 93A(2) of the Act within the prescribed period, or this notification is withdrawn.

The prescribed period is 21 days (if this notification is given on or before 30 June 1996) or 14 days (if this notification is given after 30 June 1996), starting on the day when this notification is given.

If the Commission gives a notice under sub-section 93A(2) of the Act within the prescribed period, this notification will not come into force unless the Commission, after completing the procedures in section 93A of the Act, decides not to give a notice under subsection 93(3A) of the Act. The notification comes into force when that decision is made.

If this notification is in respect of conduct of a kind referred to in subsection 47(2), (3), (4) or (5), or paragraph 47(8)(a) or (b) or (9)(a), (b) or (c), of the Act, it comes into force when it is given.
