Dear Mr Wood

Re: Third line forcing notifications Nos. N50172 and N50173, lodged by Amazing Clean Pty Ltd and Amazing Clean Fabric Care Pty Ltd

I refer to the above third line forcing notifications lodged with the Australian Competition and Consumer Commission (the ACCC) on 8 November 2005. The notifications have been placed on the ACCC's public register.

On behalf of Amazing Clean Pty Ltd and Amazing Clean Fabric Care Pty Ltd (the franchisors) you have described the conduct as the requirement for franchisees to buy goods (being printed materials, including stationery, business cards, brochures and promotional material) from a supplier nominated by the franchisor.

Legal immunity conferred by the notification came into force on 22 November 2005.

On the basis of the information that you have provided, it is not intended that further action be taken in this matter at this stage.

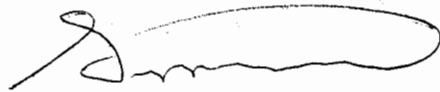

As with any notification, please note that the ACCC may act to remove the immunity afforded by this notification at a later stage if it is satisfied that the likely benefit to the public from the conduct will not outweigh the likely detriment to the public from the conduct.

Please note however, that under the Franchising Code of Conduct, your clients are required to disclose to the franchisees that they are deriving an income from the nominated supplier based on the notified conduct.

This letter has been placed on the ACCC's public register. If you wish to discuss any aspect of this matter, please do not hesitate to contact Kerry Leigh Taylor on (02) 6243 1775.

Yours sincerely
