Dear «Salutation»

Homeworkers Code of Practice Committee Inc. applications for re-authorisation
A90975, A90976, A90977, and A90978 – final determination

The Australian Competition and Consumer Commission (the ACCC) has issued a determination in respect of the applications for re-authorisation lodged by the Homeworkers Code of Practice Committee (the Code Committee) on 22 July 2005.

Having considered the application and submissions from the Code Committee and interested parties, the ACCC has decided to grant authorisation for a period of five years. A copy of the ACCC's determination is attached and is also available from the ACCC's website at:
<http://www.accc.gov.au/content/index.phtml/itemId/704992>

Application for review

Pursuant to section 101 of the Trade Practices Act 1974, a person dissatisfied with this determination may apply to the Australian Competition Tribunal for its review.

An application for review must be made within 21 days of the date of this determination; that is, on or before 2 January 2006. If no application for review is lodged by this date, the ACCC's determination will come into force on 3 January 2006.

This letter has been placed on the ACCC's public register. If you wish to discuss any aspect of this matter please do not hesitate to contact Hew Atkin on (02) 6243 1235.

Yours sincerely

David Hatfield
