Dear Mr Miller

Third line forcing notification lodged by Primus Telecommunications Pty Limited (N92288)

I refer to the above third line forcing notification lodged with the Australian Competition and Consumer Commission (the ACCC) on 22 December 2005. The notification has been placed on the Commission's public register.

Primus has described the conduct as follows:

A person who is a member of an Australian Motoring Club....may receive discounts on specified Telephony and Internet services by way of initial credit of up to $50 off the first Primus monthly account and discounts of up to 5% off subsequent monthly accounts.

Legal immunity conferred by the notification commenced on 5 January 2006.

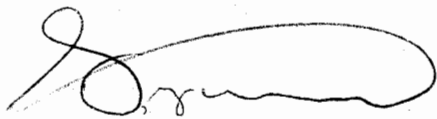

On the basis of the information provided, it is not intended that further action be taken in this matter at this stage.

Please note that the ACCC may act to remove the immunity afforded by this notification at a later stage if it is satisfied that the likely benefit to the public from the conduct will not outweigh the likely detriment to the public from the conduct.

This letter has been placed on the ACCC's public register. If you wish to discuss any aspect of this matter, please do not hesitate to contact Gavin Jones on (03) 9290 1475.

Yours sincerely
