Dear Ms Stern

Third line forcing notification N31613 lodged by Allianz Australia Insurance Limited (Allianz)

I refer to the above third line forcing notification lodged with the Australian Competition and Consumer Commission (the ACCC) on 19 May 2006. The notification has been placed on the ACCC's public register.

You have described the conduct as follows:

Allianz proposes to offer Esso Employees' Credit Union (EECU) members a discount on home and contents insurance on condition that customers acquire the EECU Package for an annual fee of $250 per annum.

Legal immunity conferred by the notification commenced on 2 June 2006.

On the basis of the information that you have provided, it is not intended that further action be taken in this matter at this stage.

As with any notification, the ACCC may act to remove the immunity afforded by the notification at a later stage if it is satisfied that the likely benefit to the public from the conduct will not outweigh the likely detriment to the public from the conduct.

A copy of this letter has been placed on the ACCC's public register. If you wish to discuss any aspect of this matter, please contact Shannon Bona on 03 9290 1479.

Yours sincerely

Scott Gregson
