Dear Ms Marsh

Applications for Revocation and Substitution lodged by the Community Care Underwriting Agency (CCUA) in relation to supply of public liability insurance – final determination

The Australian Competition and Consumer Commission (the ACCC) has issued a determination in respect of applications for revocation of authorisations A30217 and A30218 and substitution of replacement authorisations A90997 and A90998, which were lodged by the Community Care Underwriting Agency (CCUA) on 22 December 2005.

The ACCC has decided to grant a transitional authorisation to allow CCUA to:

- continue to write or renew policies up until 31 December 2006 and
- to give effect to any policies until 31 December 2007.

A copy of the ACCC's determination is attached. A copy is also available from the ACCC website www.accc.gov.au (by following the Public Registers & Authorisations links).

Application for review

Pursuant to section 101 of the Trade Practices Act 1974, a person dissatisfied with this determination may apply to the Australian Competition Tribunal for its review. An application for review must be made within 21 days of the date of this determination; that is, on or before 27 July 2006. If no application to review is lodged by this date, the ACCC's determination will come into force on 28 July 2006.

This letter has been placed on the ACCC's public register. If you wish to discuss any aspect of this matter or would like a copy of the determination sent to you, please do not hesitate to contact Carl Toohey on (03) 9290 1480 or Tina Pigliardo on (03) 9290 1481

Yours sincerely
