Dear Mr Nicholas

Third line forcing notifications lodged by Its My Super Pty Ltd (N40999) and Online Shares Pty Ltd (N41000)

I refer to the above notifications lodged by Its My Super (N40999) and Online Shares (N41000) with the Australian Competition and Consumer Commission (ACCC) on 28 July 2006. I also refer to subsequent requests for further information and clarification of the notified conduct made by the ACCC on 3 August 2006, 3 October 2006 and 20 December 2006.

I note that you have failed to respond to the ACCC's requests.

In notification N40999, Its My Super describes the conduct as involving:

As part of our accounting and taxation administration services, our Self Managed Superfund clients are required to open a Share Trading Account and Suncorp Cash Management Account.

In notification N41000, Online Shares describes the conduct as involving:

As part of Share Trading Services, clients are required to open a Suncorp Cash Management Account to assist in settling share purchases and to receive proceeds in share sales.

Legal immunity conferred by the notifications commenced on 11 August 2006.

The ACCC has been required to consider both notifications based on the minimal level of information provided by you in support of the notifications. Accordingly, while it is not intended that further action be taken in these matters at this stage, should the ACCC receive any complaints in relation to the notified conduct, it will review the immunity conferred by the notifications. The ACCC may act to remove the immunity if it is satisfied that the likely benefit to the public from the conduct will not outweigh the likely detriment to the public from the conduct.

A copy of this letter has been placed on the ACCC's public register. If you wish to discuss any aspect of this matter, please do not hesitate to contact Ms Jaime Martin on (03) 9290 1477 or at jaimemartin@acc.gov.au.

Yours sincerely
