Dear Mr Aloni,

Notifications of proposed third line forcing conduct by AGL ACT Retail Investments Pty Ltd (N93112), ACTEW Retail Pty Ltd (N93113) and TransACT Capital Communications Pty Ltd (N93114).

I refer to the above third line forcing notifications lodged with the Australian Competition and Consumer Commission (the ACCC) on 19 September, 2007. The notifications have been placed on the ACCC's public register.

AGL ACT Retail Investments Pty Ltd, ACTEW Retail Pty Ltd and TransACT Capital Communications Pty Ltd propose to invite small businesses within the Australian Capital Territory to acquire services from each of the parties, as part of a bundled offer. Depending upon the specific services acquired, the customer will be eligible for a discount on the price of those services.

Legal immunity conferred by the notification will come into force on 3 October, 2007.

On the basis of the information that you have provided, it is not intended that further action be taken in this matter at this stage.

As with any notification, please note that the ACCC may act to remove the immunity afforded by the notification at a later stage if it is satisfied that the likely benefit to the public from the conduct will not outweigh the likely detriment to the public from the conduct.

A copy of this letter has been placed on the ACCC's public register. If you wish to discuss any aspect of this matter, please do not hesitate to contact Simon Haslock on (02) 6243 4940.

Yours sincerely
