Dear Ms Bodger

Third line forcing Notifications N93129 and N93130 – Pegasus (Tas) Pty Ltd and DiaTel Pty Ltd – “Telstra Licensed Shops”

I refer to the above third line forcing notifications lodged with the Australian Competition and Consumer Commission (ACCC) on 28 September 2007. The notifications have been placed on the ACCC's public register.

You have described the notified conduct as Pegasus (Tas) and DiaTel, two Telstra Licensed Shops (TLS), offering discounts on TLS Products (mobile phones, cordless phones, fax machines, phone cards, software, hand held computers, data products and internet starter packs) and/or promotional goods or services (vouchers, cinema tickets, electrical goods and accessories and food items) on condition that the customer acquires telecommunication services and/or related goods or services from Telstra.

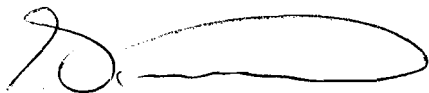

Legal immunity conferred by the notifications commences on 12 October 2007.

On the basis of the information that you have provided, it is not intended that further action be taken in this matter at this stage.

As with any notification, please note that the ACCC may act to remove the immunity afforded by these notifications at a later stage if it is satisfied that the likely benefit to the public from the conduct will not outweigh the likely detriment to the public from the conduct.

A copy of this letter has been placed on the ACCC's public register. If you wish to discuss any aspect of this matter, please do not hesitate to contact Ms Louise Hird on 03 9290 1484 or at louise.hird@acc.gov.au.

Yours sincerely
