Dear Sir/Madam,

Please accept my submission opposing eBay International AG's intended restriction of acceptable payment methods.

The proposed conduct will result in a substantial lessening of competition inasmuch as no other form of payment is allowed but eBay's owned PayPal. Said company claims the main reason for the change is the safety of transactions, a blatant lie, given that items covered by their protection needs to be Registered, Insured etc. all of which methods are already abundantly covered by Australia Post and other carriers, making eBay/PayPal's promise, redundant and a lie to cover their hidden agenda of a Monopolistic market place.

Hoping that freedom of choice and competitiveness in the market place will be upheld and that the American ways of monopolies and illegalities will not (and hopefully for a long-time yet) pollute the healthy Australian way of life.

Sincerely yours,

Ciro Gallifuoco
