Subject: Ebay and PayPal changes

Ebay are changing there system to make it mandatory for us to ONLY allow PayPal or Cash on pickup to be allowed to be made on all there Auctions.

They are removing the options for BANK TRANSFER, PAYMATE, and Direct merchant credit card.

We object to the changes being forced onto us by Ebay, we feel that it is up to our customers to choose how they pay for there products that they purchase off us and that this should not be dictated to us by Ebay.

1. A lot of our customers don't have PayPal accounts and want to pay by bank transfer
2. Customers are concerned about giving there banking details out to a third party
3. Older customers want to be able to Pay by bank transfer or by credit card
