ACCC ,

I have but one thing to say about this , if paypal is so safe as ebay states , why is it then that PAYPAL themselves actually state in their product disclosure statement that:

" There is a risk your PAYPAL ACCOUNT may be compromised and subject to an account takeover, unauthorised transactions, or other type of fraudulent activity"

I HAVE LOOKED IN THE PRODUCT DISCLOSURE STATEMENTS FOR THE ANZ , CBA , WESTPAC, BENDIGO , & NATIONAL BANKS ETC AND CANNOT FIND THE ABOVEMENTIONED DECLARATION WRITTEN BY ANY OF THE MAJOR BANKS IN THEIR "PRODUCT DISCLOSURE STATEMENTS"WONDER WHY!!!! , CAUSE THEIR SAFE , UNLIKE PAYPAL!!!

I have been ripped off by paypal both as a buyer & seller on all to many numerous occasions over the past 6 yrs that I have been an ebay member, NOT ANY MORE!!!!.....there is nothing better than bank direct debit transactions , money orders , cheques or local pickup and if paypal only payments go ahead , I, like millions of other current ebay users will find somewhere else to sell online.

This submission by ebay to only be able to pay or buy goods by paypal is BLATANT monopolizing of money by ebay ,not to mention VERY unaustralian , imagine if Coles Myer or David Jones said that all customers were only to use their Myer or dj card to pay for goods purchased in their storesTHEY WOULD SOON GO OUT OF BUSINESS!!!!

BLOCK IT OR EBAY GOES DOWN.
