I have been an eBay user for the past few years. As condition of selling I had to sign up to PayPal. At the time I felt a little uneasy but rationalised it as a way of offering potential buyers an alternative method of payment.

Now that buyers too are obliged to not only sign up to PayPal but that ALL transactions can only to be settled via PayPal (and COD) I feel I have been forced into a restrictive way of buying and selling.

While I appreciate that eBay is a business with a 'bottom line', I believe that the small businesses that have grown out of the eBay phenomenon want to offer their customers a variety of payment options.
