Submission, for publication....

I preface this submission by saying I am in no way acquainted with nor associated with the individual who has launched his web page pertaining to a particular hideous Paypal injustice to him as an innocent buyer and, secondly to his seller.

I hasten to add, however, that I have experienced similar injustices at the hands of Paypal, albeit not to the same monetary level. I am acquainted with many people who have lost $1,000's in any given transaction with Paypal.

When one reads this chap's full sordid story, the customer service, or distinct lack thereof, he received from Paypal, well it defies belief and there are many more such stories all over the web.

Please investigate and invite members of the public to share their horror stories of Paypal's strong arm tactics (with supporting evidence) BEFORE you permit them to butcher our economy further, although I cannot see how they could possibly get past the TPA in this application.

Thank you
