Hello,

I'd like to lodge a public submission as suggested to the ACCC regarding Ebay's latest policy change in Australia. Basing on that change, Ebay's in house payment agent Paypal will soon become the only payment option for all transactions on ebay, unless it is paid through cash on delivery.

We believe this is an attempt to increase ebay's revenue through paypal's high charges by sacrificing members' benefit/convenience of using other payment methods eg. bank deposit or personal check/money order

Importantly, this conduct is "suppliers requiring customers to acquire additional goods or services from others"-Third Line Forcing, is illegal outright basing on Trade Practices Act.

More comments of ebay members can be found under below forums link.

NO MORE BANK PAYMENTS-ONLY MORE PAYPAL FEES !!

Regards/L Zeng
