Dear Sir,

I am an ebay user and have a Paypal account. I think it is anti-competitive for ebay to make Paypal the only form of acceptable on line payment for goods purchased via ebay. Whilst I do agree that it would make the system more safe I have probably bought 100 times and sold 10 times and I have never had any issues whether Paypal, direct deposit or Credit Card is used. People should have the choice it keeps the system honest.

Regards

Paul Envis
