Subject: Notification - N93365 eBay

Dear ACCC,

I have been both a buyer and seller on eBay Australia for over 5 years and would like make a submission in relation to Notification N93365.

When I want to auction items, eBay is by far the best and cheapest medium for me to use. The items I auction on eBay on average cost me about 10% including any PayPal fees (this may be higher for other sellers selling low end items under $10) and don't cost the buyer anything in the form of a 'buyer's premium'.

The perceived security benefits outlined in the submission can still be achieved through other online escrow checkout services such as www.pavmate.com.au or www.moneybookers.com. This would allow true competition in online money transfers and would allow the sellers to choose the best online escrow product instead of being restricted to just one

Regards,
Darren.
