Dear Sir,

In great haste as I believe submissions are due today re dissatisfaction with ebay' s intention to make Paypal the only method pf payment. I object to the monopoly this will create over customers, it seems to be some sort of restrictive trade practice, and I wonder if it infringes the Fair Trading Act as well.

There are plenty of sites epxressing how bad Paypal already is, one is www.paypalsucks.com The Paypal system does not work in favour of anyone except ebay, which stands to make millions from fees, treating customers as nothing but a cash cow.

I am sorry I haven't time to work up a further submission,, but I hope this message will add to the groundswell of the enormous number of dissatisfied people who have requested that the ACCC investigate.

Yours faithfully,
